PURCHASED POWER CRAFT.

CAPT. PATRICK MURPHY WILL FIT STEAM YACHT VENTURE FOR FISHING.

Capt. Patrick Murphy of this city, who recently sold his sch. Emily Cooney to Pensacola, Florida, parties, will continue fishing and hereafter will go in a steam powered craft. He has bought the steam yacht Venture of New York, and will immediately begin work of having her transformed from a pleasure craft to a money-making fishing boat.

Capt. Murphy went to New York recently to look around for a boat suitable to his ideas and bought the Venture there. He wasted no time, and as soon as she was in his possession steam was got up and she was headed for here. Yesterday he arrived with the latest addition to the local fishing fleet. The craft is 60 feet long, 15 feet beam and measures about 35 tons gross.

Last winter, Capt. Murphy, who is a careful student of fishing conditions, as well as a money maker, went out a few trips in one of the gasoline-powered gill net fishermen, and was much impressed with the possibilities of that method of fish catching. It is therefore expected that he will fit his new command for that style of fishing.

Two Fishing Schooners To Be Built.

Capt. John Silveira, who recently sold his sch. Flora J. Sears to Pensacola, Florida, parties, is to have a new craft built which he will command in the market fishery. The new vessel will be of semi-knockabout design, with a stub bowsprit and will be about 100 tons gross.

Capt. Sears, who has been one of the crew of sch. Mary E. Cooney for some time, is to have a new fishing schooner built by John Bishop, at Vincent Point.

It is notable that in the past few years no fewer than eight men have graduated from the ranks of the crackjack crew, which Capt. Frank Cooney has carried in sch. Mary E. Cooney, and every one of them has made good and proved a fine market fishing skipper.

TODAY'S FISH MARKET.

May Purchase Vessels.

A party of gentlemen from Cuba, who are interested in trade and the fisheries there, are here looking to purchase three or four fishing vessels.

Nov. 3.
THREE FOREIGN SALT COD FARES

NEARLY A MILLION POUNDS RECEIVED FROM NEWFOUND.
LAND TODAY.

Since yesterday forenoon three British vessels have arrived at this port, bringing practically a million pounds of Newfoundland salt codfish.

The crafts are the three masted sch. Gay Gordon, from Belleoram, with 450,000 pounds, whose arrival was reported yesterday; sch. Hispanola, from Harbor Breton, with 300,000 pounds and sch. Stella, from Harbor Breton, with 225,000 pounds. The fish are consigned to the Gorton-Pew Fisheries Company and the Cunningham & Thompson Company.

This is the largest amount of foreign salt cod to arrive at this port, in one day for a long term of years and is the advance lot of the grand total of 5,000,000 pounds or more of Newfoundland salt cod which are coming here within the next few weeks.

Sch. Gay Gordon is a three masted craft and the two others are two masters.

The work of discharging the fish began this morning at the wharves of the firms above mentioned.

Sch. Selma, one of the halibut fleet, is in this morning from the Cape Shore grounds with 10,000 pounds of halibut, 16,000 pounds of salt fish and 30,000 pounds of fresh fish and sch. Avalon came in from the eastward with a nice fare of 80,000 pounds of fresh fish, mostly cod.

Schs. Jeanette and Edith Silveira are down from Boston with small lots of fresh hake for the splitters and sch. Marjie Turner, which landed a small fare of halibut at Portland Wednesday, is here with a few fresh and salt fish.

The torchers had about 150 barrels of bait last night.

This noon sch. Laverna arrived from a haddock trip to the eastward with a small catch, Capt. Albert Larkin, hailing for 20,000 pounds of cod and haddock and 2000 weight of halibut. The captain reported that dogfish were solid, in regular droves and fairly ate bait and gear before the trawls could get to bottom.

The lake boats which were out yesterday, gill netting, brought in 22,000 pounds altogether of fresh fish, mostly pollock. Three of them had small catches, but steamer Margaret D. brought in 8000 pounds and the Quoddy 9000 pounds.

It is blowing quite fresh off shore today and will be no fish day for the shore fleet. A number went out last night and this morning, but most of them came about and came back after getting out a ways and taking a look at it.

Today's Arrivals and Receipts.

The arrivals and receipts in detail are:
Br. sch. Hispanola, Harbor Breton, N. F., 300,000 lbs. salt cod.

Nov. 3.
SCH. MARGARET DRAGGED ASHORE

PROBABILITY THAT THE VESSEL IS ON SAND AND WILL BE FLOATED.

Sch. Margaret, Capt. William Grady, of this port, one of the fresh halibut fleet, is ashore at Shag Harbor, N. S. A dispatch from Capt. Grady this morning gives few particulars, merely stating that the craft dragged ashore during a blow last night.

The craft had 14,000 pounds of halibut on board and these will be shipped home if the craft is not floated today.

Skippers acquainted with the locality say that there are few rocky places there and that the shore is mostly sand beaches, so it is probable that the vessel will be floated.

Nov. 3.

Last Trip of the Season.

Capt. Antone White of sch. Natalie J. Nelson, has announced that he had made his last trip of the present season and intended to join the other Portuguese skippers, nearly a dozen of whom have tied their craft up at Provincetown.

Sch. Cavalier Spoken.

Capt. Adelbert Nickerson of sch. Tacoma reports speaking sch. Cavalier on Quero bank some time ago.

Run of Herring at Clark's Harbor, N. S.

Men, women and children at Clark's Harbor, N. S., were busily engaged yesterday in taking herring from the waters there, as fish of this kind in unprecedented quantities have been discovered along the shores. Thousands of barrels already have been secured and the fishermen are reaping a harvest.

Nov. 4.

SALT HERRING VESSELS HOME.

The first salt herring cargoes of the season are home, schs. Maxine Elliott and Essex arriving here this morning from Bonne Bay, N. F., with full loads for the Gorton-Pew Fisheries Company. The crafts had a close race all the way home, the Elliott coming up the harbor a few hours ahead of the Essex.

As both crafts left here together, being the first of the herring fleet to sail this season, October 13, the round trip has been made in the very fast time of 22 days. Both crafts loaded together and started for home side by side.

In all the 750 miles of the homeward journey they were hardly out of sight of each other and on Thursday, coming across the Bay of Fundy they were so handy to each other that Capt. Joseph Bon'a of the Elliott slung out his dory and went and made a social call on Capt. Fred Upshall, on board the Essex.

Both skippers report fair passages home, being a week coming. Both cargoes will be hustled out and into the smoke houses and the crafts will go back for second loads.

Nov. 4.
FEW VESSELS AT T WHARF.

WITH LIGHT RECEIPTS, FAIR
PRICES WERE PAID FOR FISH.

T wharf had only a half dozen vessels in this morning with fish fares. all of them small with one exception and that one being sch. Patrician from the eastward, with 77,000 pounds of fresh fish, all but 2000 pounds being codfish.

Sch. Margaret Dillon had a small shore trip and three of the little cod netters, operating off Plymouth, had from 5000 to 7000 pounds each.

The market was fair, haddock selling for $3 and large cod bringing $4, while pollock of which there were but 2000 pounds in, went at $1.25 and $1.50.

Boston Arrivals.

The fares and prices in detail are:
Sch. Margaret Dillon, 10,000 haddock, 6000 cod, 1000 pollock.
Sch. Speculator, 2000 haddock, 8000 cod, 1000 pollock.
Sch. Patrician, 2000 haddock, 75,000 cod.

Sch. W. A. Rowe, 7000 cod.

Schs. Sylvania and Priscilla Smith Spoken.

Capt. Clayton Morrissey of sch. Arcthusa reports speaking schs. Sylvania and Priscilla Smith off the Cape Breton coast recently. The former is one of the dory handline fleet and only left here August 1. She struck big fishing in the Gulf of St. Lawrence and Capt. Morrissey says she is coming home with 260,000 pounds of salt cod. The captain also says that the Priscilla Smith, which is deck handlining, was on good fishing and doing well.

Fishing Fleet Movements.

Schs. Olga, Titania and Cynthia were at Canso, N. S., on Tuesday and cleared for the fishing ground.
Schs. Esperanto and Mooween were at Canso, N. S., on Wednesday and cleared, the former for Hawkesbury and the latter for the fishing grounds.
Sch. Maud F. Silva was at Liverpool, N. S., on Wednesday, and cleared for fishing.

Nov. 4. ✓ GENEROUS FISH RECEIPTS.

BROUGHT TO THIS PORT TODAY
IN BOTH AMERICAN AND BRITISH VESSELS.

There is much of interest in the arrival at this port since last report. The first of the Newfoundland herring are home with full salted cargoes, sch. Arethusa is home from her third salt bank trip of the season with over 300,000 pounds of salt cod and two more loads of Newfoundland salt cod are here in British vessels.

The foreign crafts are the Gordon Hollett, from Burin, with 412,000 pounds of salt cod for Gorton-Pew Fisheries Company and sch. Grace Tibbo from Grand Bank with 370,000 pounds of salt cod for Davis Brothers.

The herring craft home are schs. Maxine Elliott and Essex, both from Bonne Bay and both with full loads.

Sch. Annie F. Kimball, from Jonesport, Maine, brings a cargo of cured fish and sch. Lucania has a few fresh fish down from Boston, to split. Sch. Tecumseh is in from the shore ground with a nice trip of hake which also went to split.

Yesterday afternoon the gill netting fleet came in and some of them had big fares; two crafts hauling for 12,000 pounds each, the fleet of seven boats having over 40,000 pounds altogether.

The torchers had about 70 barrels of bait last night.

Today's Arrivals and Receipts.

The arrivals and receipts in detail are:

Nov. 4. ✓ BACK FROM THIRD SALT BANK TRIP.

Sch. Arethusa Lands
<sup>els.</sup>
800,000 Cod, Stocks
$32,000, FOR Season.

The old reliable record breaker, Capt. Clayton Morrissey, is home again, coming in this morning from his third salt trawl bank codfishing trip of the season in the big knockabout sch. Arethusa, with another walloping big fare to pile on top of the two other big ones which he has previously landed this season.

All of which means incidentally that when the present fare is out and settled for, he will have to his credit of 800,000 pounds of fish landed and a stock in the vicinity of $32,000 to show for the hard work he and his crew have done, which stock will be the largest ever made in one season by any vessel, sailing from any port on the North Atlantic coast and engaged in the salt bank fishery.

It does not seem right to term a Morrissey as an "old" reliable, and yet after all this seems to be term which expresses what he has been doing in the fishing line year after year, for the past decade.

He now holds about all the records in sight in the salt bank fishery and so in his magnificent performance this season he is but going himself one better.

The Arethusa started on her season February 17 and on her first trip, which was made in short order, the stock of $8751.10 was made, while on the second the stock was $9565.77. The stock on the present fare will be over $13,000.

Capt. Morrissey hails his present fare for 300,000 pounds and it is safe to say that the fare will weigh out more than the haul. The big fare was taken partly on Grand bank, partly on Queto Bank and the finishing touches put on off Scatterie, where some squid were struck, but the latter disappeared after staying on the ground but a short time.

Regarding the capture and arrest of a large number of his crew while in the alleged attempt of securing bait on the non-treaty coast, early in the trip, Capt. Morrissey is not talking, as there are yet some details in connection with the affair which have not yet been officially settled.

Portland Fish Notes.

Some time ago it was rumored that an attempt would be made by the Gloucester vessel owners to keep their skippers from taking their fares to Portland. If such was the fact it seems to have failed of the desired effect, no less than three of the Fishery City's best schooners making harbor there on Thursday. In addition to sch. Carrie C., which came in during the forenoon, sch. Effie M. Morrissey came in about dark, bringing 70,000 pounds of mixed fish, and in company with her there arrived sch. Senator from a Bank trip, with 9090 pounds of halibut, 7000 pounds of salt cod and 20,000 pounds of shuck fish.

There was some lively bidding on the halibut trip of sch. Marjie Turner Thursday, the liveliest for some time, and the highest price of the season was reached before the bidders got through. The bidding started with Adelbert Sargent and Fred H. Harry of the New England Fish Co. pitted against one another. The price first quoted with 12 cents, but it did not hover around here very long. It crept up by half cents and quarter cents. Along towards the end, there was a wavering. At the start the price given was for grays and whites separately, but a flat price for all was finally reached.

When 14 1-2 cents right through was called, Fred Harty, decided that was too high for him to come out whole on the purchase so the fish went to Sargent. It was a good thing for Capt. Colson, the skipper of the craft. Incidentally, it might be remarked, the price paid for this halibut was the highest given since last February.

Nov. 4. ✓
When sch. Carrie C. arrived at Portland on Thursday, she had 250 pounds of halibut and 8000 pounds of salt fish that had been caught on Brown's bank. The craft did not have more fish because the bait had run out and she put back to this port for more. The halibut were bought by the F. S. Willard Co.

Nov. 4.

GOLDFISH EAT MOSQUITOES.

Ethelbert Herman of Bloomfield, N. J., has found a way to get rid of mosquitoes that invade his estate. He has sunk three barrels filled with water in his lawn and in them has placed a number of goldfish. As fast as the mosquitoes go to the barrel to lay eggs the goldfish eat them, Herman says.

Nov. 4.

Sch. Margaret Floated.

Sch. Margaret of this port, which dragged ashore at Shag Harbor, N. S., Thursday night during a heavy blow, has been floated. The craft is not much damaged and is now at Yarmouth, N. S., where she will haul out on the ways for examination and possible repairs.

Nov. 6 + ✓

GILL NETTERS GET POLLOCK.

OPENED THEIR SEASON WITH CATCHES SATURDAY AND YESTERDAY.

The feature of the receipts here since last report is the work of the seven crafts now comprising the gill netting fleet operating on the shore grounds.

On Saturday afternoon these crafts came in with an aggregate of 50,000 pounds, two of them having 12,000 and 13,000 pounds each. Sunday they were out again and back again in the afternoon with 66,000 pounds, 13,000 pounds again being the catch of the high boat. The fish being taken now are mostly pollock.

Saturday afternoon, sch. Patrician came down from Boston with 60,000 pounds of fresh cod for the splitters and this morning sch. Hortense came in from the shore grounds with 40,000 pounds of hake which will also go to split.

From an eastern deck handlining trip, sch. Mary E. Harty, in this morning, brings 20,000 pounds of salt cod.

Sch. Mabel is here from Southwest Harbor, Me., with cured fish for Davis Brothers.

The mackerel netters are doing poorly and Saturday and yesterday had very few fish indeed.

The torchers have 100 barrels of fresh herring to show for two nights' work.

Today's Arrivals and Receipts.

The arrivals and receipts in detail are:

Sch. Patrician, via Boston, 60,000 lbs. fresh fish.

Sch. Hortense, shore, 40,000 lbs. fresh fish.

Smoking Finnan Haddies.

The smoke houses have started up along the Maine coast with the beginning of the present month. The reappearance of the haddock is the cause of this, for these are about the only kind of fish that are smoked. They are showing in good sized numbers now and the outlook for the finnan haddock business is excellent.
